Tax and Finance Update

This seminar will cover:

This cybersecurity session will help people and organizations protect themselves online. The speaker will explain how everyday behavior could put you at risk for identity theft. He will also offer straightforward tips to safeguard your information, as well as information entrusted to you, in today's digital world.

The tax and finance update section will address the most important legal, tax, and risk management developments for churches and church leaders. Issues to be covered include a review of church litigation trends; church legal issues associated with same-sex marriage and gender identity; child abuse reporting; current issues involving release forms; liability based on texting; short-term missions trips; eight potential consequences of renting church property; and the status of the housing allowance.

Do people look forward to your reports? Learn a fresh method of reporting and applying trends from the non-profit industry in this interactive workshop. Give MORE information using fewer pages. Walk away with your own customized plan that you can immediately implement and transform your church's outcomes!
